

TOWN COUNCIL
Work Session
Cape Charles Civic Center
August 8, 2024
6:00 PM

At approximately 6:00 p.m. Mayor Adam Charney, having established a quorum, called to order the Work Session of the Cape Charles Town Council. In addition to Mayor Charney, in attendance were Vice Mayor Bennett, Councilmen Buchholz, Butta, Follmer and Grossman, and Councilwoman Holloway. Also, in attendance were Town Manager John Hozey, Planner/Zoning Administrator Katie Nunez, Police Officer Jordan Yee, and Town Clerk Libby Hume. There were 14 members of the public physically in attendance.

Mayor Charney welcomed all in attendance and explained that this was a work session so there would be no public comments received this evening nor any interaction between the Council and members of the public.

WORK SESSION ORDER OF BUSINESS:

A. Short-Term Rental (STR) Regulations:

Town Manager John Hozey began by informing everyone that we would begin the review with language relating to the zoning ordinance, adding that the section references were for the draft zoning ordinance currently being reviewed by the Planning Commission and Town Council. He went on to review the draft ordinance by page.

There were no questions or changes to pages 1 or 2.

Page 3: i) A slight inconsistency was noted in #3 which was revised to read "This ordinance is intended to work in tandem with the town's business license requirements, as a measure for the town to monitor the number of STRs and enforce regulations."

Page 4: i) Councilman Holloway expressed her concern with automatic renewal of an STR permit in #B-3. Others agreed with the concern and the word "automatically" was deleted; ii) Item # B-7 was added for compliance with new state legislation; iii) There was much discussion regarding "commercial gatherings" in item #C-4. Commercial gatherings were parties where admission was charged, and this language did not include potential issues with large party houses which were non-commercial. If a group rented multiple homes, they should all be able to get together at one house for meals or gatherings. Removal of "commercial" or the language related to compensation would open this up to include all large parties. A question was posed regarding how many people constituted a large party. It was agreed that "commercial" and "compensation" needed to be kept in the language to differentiate from private gatherings. Councilwoman Holloway added that the Town was fairly lucky that we did not typically have issues with large, non-commercial, party houses, but this was our opportunity to address the issue. John Hozey responded that parties would be allowed, and the Town could rely on the noise ordinance for enforcement if necessary; iv) There was some discussion regarding item #C-5, but no changes were made to the proposed language.

Page 5: Item #C-8 Refuse requirements. Councilman Butta expressed his concern with requiring a certain number of trash receptacles year-round and suggested a time frame from Memorial Day to Labor Day, when the STRs were busier. There was some discussion about this, and John Hozey noted that the section of the Town Code dealing with trash collection was currently being reviewed and this issue would be taken into consideration.

Page 6: Violations. i) Councilwoman Holloway commented on item 1.c "Failure to pay all business or transient occupancy taxes due the town from the prior year" and recommended that this item be split into two – one for business licenses and one for transient occupancy taxes, since they were two very different issues. She also expressed her concern of allowing both taxes to go unpaid for a full year. There was some discussion, and it was agreed that each tax should be a separate violation. The timeframe of one year in arrears was kept for business taxes but the transient occupancy tax language was changed to being three months in arrears in filing; ii) John Hozey noted that one of biggest benefits of the ordinance would be having 24/7 contact information; iii) Vice Mayor Bennett expressed his thoughts that on items g & h, he felt that three or more violations were too many. There was some discussion and a consensus that the language be changed to "Two or more..."

There were no questions or changes made to any of the remaining pages (7 through 11).

John Hozey stated that the zoning-related regulations would be provided to the Planning Commission for their review and public hearing. The Planning Commission's recommendation would then be provided to the Town Council for review and public hearing, prior to adoption.

John Hozey stated that parking was not included in the proposed ordinance as the Council did not reach an agreement at the last meeting. Some individuals had the opinion that parking was not a problem and asked why the Town was considering parking regulations when there were no problems. John Hozey asked Council if parking was something that needed to be addressed in Cape Charles.

Councilman Follmer stated that if the feedback was broken down by where people lived, most people in the residential districts felt there was a problem.

John Hozey stated that the vast majority of respondents to the annual survey felt that there was no problem. 54 stated that the Town needed to regulate parking. 18 were interested in protections for residents to park by their homes. 70 to 80 expressed some concern about parking and STRs. He asked Council for their opinions.

There was much discussion as follows: i) Councilman Grossman felt that parking was a problem as indicated in the survey. He re-reviewed the comments and confirmed that it was a problem in the Residential-1 District and some sections of Bay Creek; ii) Councilman Follmer thought that the vast majority of residents in the Historic District felt that parking was a problem; iii) Councilman Butta did not think the vast majority of those in the Historic District felt that parking was a problem, but certain areas, such as Randolph Avenue, did have problems. He did not believe the issue was everywhere and he did not like making regulations for the entire area. He added that many people who lived in suburban areas with larger lots and driveways and garages were used to parking at their houses. Moving to a smaller town with small lots would be a big change for them. If they lived in Ghent or another densely populated area, they would be used to walking a block or more to get to their houses. We do have older residents in Cape Charles and could accommodate them by approving handicapped parking by their houses. If you looked at a certain time of day, day-trippers affected parking, but not so overwhelming that broad parking regulations were needed; iv) Vice Mayor Bennett thought there was a real or perceived problem in the Historic District. The number of people that came here during the summer would create parking issues which was not something that could be ignored, but he also felt that there was no solution at this point; v) Councilwoman Holloway felt that there definitely was a problem adding that STRs affected parking, and the residents felt the pain. This was a piece of the broader "parking pie" and we could not solve just one piece of it. She agreed that there was an issue with dense neighborhoods and would like to see the Good Neighbor policy which was developed by the Vacation Rental Homeowners group distributed more widely. There might be some proactive things that could be done that could help the parking issues; vi) Councilman Follmer felt that the Good Neighbor policy could help but was not a substitute for a plan. He did not think the parking issue could be attributed primarily as an STR issue. The issue needed to be handled as a whole; vii) Councilwoman Holloway recommended that we work with the Vacation Rental Homeowners group. She talked to her guests every Saturday asking them not to park on the side street to allow food trucks, etc. for the concerts in Central Park; viii) Mayor Charney agreed with Councilwoman Holloway, adding that during the peak season, certain streets could have parking issues; ix) Councilman Buchholz hoped that we would see a difference with the limit placed on occupancy; x) John Hozey stated that it appeared that there was no desire to discuss or group parking issues with STRs; xi) Councilman Grossman added that we were just kicking the can down the road. He felt there were issues with STRs and parking that needed to be addressed in the ordinance now. There was a proposal brought to the table earlier that would limit the number of cars for an STR. John Hozey responded that this could be done similarly as the regulation on occupancy; xii) Councilman Follmer added that parking was a little more inflammatory than occupancy and neighbors would turn in their neighbors. We would not be maintaining our sense of community if we had neighbors turned against each other; xiii) Councilman Buchholz asked how the Town could do anything since our roads were public roads owned by VDOT. The Town would have to go through the General Assembly for permission to regulate anything to do with the roads. Councilman Grossman noted that he had reviewed lots of ordinances from localities regarding roads. Councilman Buchholz added that the Town did not own our roads; xiv) Councilwoman Holloway stated that the parking issue needed to be put back on the priority list. Councilman Grossman asked everyone to think about how long it took to deal with STRS which was on our priority list; xv) Councilman Follmer stated that all other proposals regarding parking only pushed the residential traffic in to the business district which was already congested; xvi) There were no other comments.

There was some discussion regarding the effective date of this ordinance once adopted: i) John Hozey stated that when initially reviewed in November 2023, the recommended implementation date was January 2025. Legal review would be requested for the proposed ordinance and if all went well, the approval process could be completed in October. With it being so late in the year, he would recommend an effective date of January 2026 since there were over 350 STRs that all needed to be inspected by the code official. It would not be practical to think everything could be completed for implementation in January 2025; ii) Councilwoman Holloway noted that software needed to be purchased and additional staff hired for enforcement. John Hozey agreed adding that there would not be sufficient time to complete everything for this year; iii) Councilman Follmer noted that some reservations had already been booked far in advance and the Town needed to be mindful of those contracts; iv) Councilwoman Holloway added that even if the ordinance would not take effect until January 2026, the Town needed to be aggressive in its notifications to all involved to ensure understanding of the new rules; v) Councilman Grossman expressed his concern of making the entire ordinance become effective January 2026, adding that some items could potentially take effect sooner, and recommended a review of the items in the proposed ordinance to possibly identify those that could become effective in June 2025. Councilman Butta agreed stating that issues related to trash receptacles could have an earlier effective date; vi) Councilwoman Holloway noted that some violations covered by the Town Code could be enforced sooner. Katie Nunez agreed that some issues such as noise were covered by the Town Code and could be enforced sooner, adding that she would move forward with the items in the Town Code so they could become effective sooner, but all Zoning Ordinance items would not take effect until January 2026.

John Hozey went over some meeting changes. The August 15th regular meeting was cancelled for lack of agenda items, but the Council would still be meeting on August 15th for a work session regarding harbor management which would be followed by an executive session. There were some pending business items which could not be ready by August 15th, so a special meeting was scheduled for August 22nd. We had already agreed to a joint work session with the Planning Commission for August 22nd, so that work session would be moved to 6:30 p.m. and the special meeting would begin at 6:00 p.m. For now, we had nothing scheduled for the first Thursday in September.

Motion made by Councilman Buchholz, seconded by Councilman Grossman, to adjourn the Town Council Work Session. The motion was approved by unanimous vote.

The meeting was adjourned at 7:04 p.m.

Section 4.5 Off-Street Parking and Loading Standards

Table on Minimum Parking Space Requirements

Change 9. Bed and breakfasts, ~~other temporary residences renting by the day or week~~

New Section: 4.15 Short-Term Rental (STR) Regulations

A. Purpose and intent

1. Short-term rentals (STRs) are common in America today, including in the town. However, given that they are commercial uses which must co-exist with residential uses, and often in neighborhoods not designed for commercial activity, limits and regulations are needed. This article is intended to provide the requirements to allow these certain limited commercial uses in town zoning districts containing residential uses per Article III.

2. The regulations for short-term rentals are designed to accommodate an STR operator's limited commercial use in a way that is safe for the guest, meets town requirements, does not change the character of the town, and fits in with the districts in which STRs operate.

3. This ordinance is intended to work in tandem with the ~~town's short-term rental zoning permitting requirements and the town's business license requirements~~, as a measure for the town to monitor the number of STRs and enforce regulations.

B. Permitting Requirements

1. No owner shall operate a short-term rental unit or advertise a residential property for short-term rental use without the owner first receiving an annual business license from the town, issued in accordance with Town Code Chapter 18, Article II by the Finance Department.

2. No owner shall operate a short-term rental unit or advertise a residential property for short-term rental without having first obtained an approved short-term rental zoning permit from the Planning Department. The application for a zoning permit will require, as a minimum, the following:

- a. Name of owner of the short-term rental property
- b. Address of the short-term rental property
- c. Town business license number
- d. For operators that are a lessee or sublessee, an attestation that the property owner has granted permission for use of such property as a short-term rental
- e. Contact information for all owner(s) and property management companies (if applicable), to include: names, telephone numbers, mailing addresses, and e-mail addresses. If ownership is via partnership or corporation, a list of all partners, officers, and shareholders (as appropriate) must be provided with the same contact information
- f. Contact information, that will be publicly available, for a 24 hour/7 day a week contact who is the responsible party to address immediate concerns associated with a short-term rental, and who has the authority to act as the owner's agent
- g. If the property is governed by a homeowners' association, proof that authorization to operate the short-term rental was provided by the homeowners' association

3. Short-term rental zoning permits will be valid for one year and will ~~automatically~~ renew each subsequent year, if in good standing, and upon approval of the associated annual business license and re-inspection.
4. Any change to information on the short-term rental zoning permit application will require notification to the Planning Department within 10 business days.
5. Any change in property or short-term rental ownership will require a new application for the business license, short-term rental zoning permit, and inspection within 20 business days.
6. An owner (which includes, but is not limited to, corporations or partnerships, and entities or individuals listed in connection with corporations or partnerships) may only operate up to five short-term rental units within the entire town.
7. An operator is not prohibited from offering a property as a short-term rental solely on the basis that such operator is a lessee or sublessee, provided that the property owner has granted permission for such property's use as a short-term rental. However, a lessee or sublessee is limited to one short-term rental within the town. An operator will be required to meet any subleasing requirements, if any, from any applicable homeowner's association.

C. Additional Requirements

1. Every short-term rental is required to submit transient occupancy tax (TOT) in accordance with Town Code Chapter 18, Article V.
2. Short-term rentals are only permitted in those residential districts as specified in Article III.
3. Simultaneous rentals under separate contracts are prohibited for short-term rentals.
4. Commercial gatherings providing direct or indirect compensation, including but not limited to luncheons, banquets, parties, weddings, charitable fund-raising, commercial or advertising activities, or other similar occurrences are prohibited.
5. Occupancy: There shall be no more than two lodgers per bedroom; with the maximum number of all overnight lodgers per rental being no greater than ten (excluding children five years of age or younger).

Occupancy of greater than 10 lodgers per STR may be approved through a Conditional Use Permit, provided the structure possesses more than five qualifying bedrooms and the property can accommodate sufficient off-street parking.

The town retains the right to investigate complaints of proposed violations to this section and/or to periodically contact STR lodgers to determine occupancy. If town investigators determine that a violation of this section has occurred, notice of such violation will be provided to the short-term rental zoning permit holder or agent who will be responsible to cure the violation.

Change made to B.3

Pertinent example in Virginia code:

§ 36-105.4. Occupancy standards for residential dwelling units.

The owner or managing agent of a residential dwelling unit may develop and implement occupancy standards restricting the maximum number of occupants permitted to occupy a dwelling unit to two persons per bedroom, which is presumed to be reasonable. For purposes of Chapter 5.1 (§ 36-96.1 et seq.), such occupancy standard is subject to the provisions of applicable state and federal laws and regulations. Under the Uniform Statewide Building Code, each bedroom shall contain at least 70 square feet of floor area, and each bedroom occupied by more than one person shall contain at least 50 square feet of floor area for each occupant. Reasonable occupancy standards of an owner or managing agent shall not be enforceable under the provisions of the Uniform Statewide Building Code.

Regardless of what UBC offers for occupancy, we are regulating a business and can put restrictions on that are more restrictive than UBC.

6. The business license and emergency information must be conspicuously posted inside each rental, including the 24/7 contact information for the STR responsible party.
7. Signage is to comply with Article IV, Section 4.1.
8. Refuse requirements: one and two bedroom dwelling units used as short-term rental units will require one trash receptacle; three or more bedroom units will require two receptacles.
9. Lodgers and their guests will be required to observe noise requirements contained in Town Code Chapter 20, Article I, Section 20-3.
10. Safety Equipment: Operable smoke detectors, fire extinguishers, and carbon monoxide detectors shall be present in compliance with the Virginia Uniform Statewide Building Code.
11. Under no circumstances shall the issuance of a certificate of zoning compliance (permit for short-term rental) by the Administrator (town) be construed as abrogating, nullifying or invalidating any other provision of Federal, State or local law: any deed covenant or property right; or any property owners' association bylaw.

D. Inspections

1. An initial inspection will be required for all short-term rentals in accordance with Town Code Chapter 8, Section 8-4.
2. An annual re-inspection by the Code Official or designee is required when filing for a short-term rental business license renewal.

No questions or changes.

3. The Building Code Official or designee maintains the right to inspect a short-term rental, with adequate notice, based on complaints or reasonable suspicion, to verify that the rental is being operated in accordance with the Virginia Uniform Statewide Building Code and other regulations set forth within this section.

E. Violations

1. A short-term rental zoning permit may be denied for the following calendar year for any of the following violations:

- a. Failure to obtain/maintain a town business license
- b. Failure to pay all town real property taxes
- c. Failure to pay all business or transient occupancy taxes due the town from the prior year
- d. Falsifying town forms or applications
- e. Other applicable town zoning violations
- f. Failure to provide responsive actions to issues raised to the 24/7 contacts, as determined through town investigations
- g. Three or more violations of safety/building code requirements within the same calendar year, following reasonable notice g. & h. - Changed to "Two" or more violations...
- h. Three or more violations of occupancy limits within the same calendar year, following reasonable notice

c. Business & TOT taxes being split into 2 separate violations. TOT language changed to "3 months in arrears of filing"

Reasonable notice is satisfied when an authorized town official notifies the zoning permit holder or agent of a condition violating requirements of this section, and 24 hours pass without resolution of the violation.

Note: individual nuisance or noise violations will be issued directly to the offending party in addition to any consequence to the zoning permit holder.

Violations may be investigated by the Treasurer, Zoning Administrator, Building Code Official, or Police Chief as appropriate. Once investigated, violations pursuant to this section will be issued by the Zoning Administrator.

2. An operator whose short-term rental zoning permit has been denied for the following calendar year pursuant to this section, shall not be eligible to obtain another short-term rental zoning permit for the subject short-term rental for the entire succeeding calendar year. Thereafter, the owner/operator will be required to apply for a new business license, short-term rental zoning permit, and an inspection.

Examples of localities that discuss violations and suspension/cancellation:

Leesburg, Waynesboro – remaining year and next calendar year.

Newport News – 2 years

Lexington, Virginia Beach, Onancock, Botetourt Co., Lynchburg, Front Royal, Ashland, Blacksburg, Abingdon, Christiansburg, Arlington – not specified

Alexandria – prohibit from offering a specific property for STR

3. Before the denial of short-term rental zoning permits for the following calendar year is made effective, the town shall give written notice to the short-term rental owner/operator as noted on the STR zoning permit. The notice of permit renewal denial for the following calendar year issued under the provisions of the section shall contain:

- a. A description of the violations constituting the basis of the suspension or revocation;
- b. If applicable, a statement of acts necessary to correct the violation(s); and
- c. A statement that if no response is made by the owner/operator within 30 calendar days from the date of notice, denial of the short-term rental zoning permit for the following calendar year will be effective.

No owner, agent, or person in charge of a dwelling unit in the town shall allow any person to occupy the dwelling unit as a tenant or lessee or for a valuable consideration unless such dwelling unit shall have been inspected immediately prior to occupancy and shall have been determined to be in compliance with the provisions of this article and the Virginia Uniform Statewide Building Code (USBC). Failure to obtain such inspection shall be considered a violation of this article and shall result in a penalty, as set out in section 8-5. Each day in which the owner, agent, or person in charge fails to obtain an inspection after occupancy shall be considered a separate offense. Such compliance shall be evidenced by a rental certificate issued by the town. No such inspection shall be required within 365 days of the date of the last rental certificate of occupancy. A new certificate of occupancy may be required every two calendar years in the event the same tenant remains for two or more years.

Modify Sec. 8-6. - Issuance of certificates.

(a) In order to implement the provisions of section 8-4, the owner, agent or other person authorized to rent a dwelling unit (hereinafter referred to as the applicant) shall request in writing from the code official a prompt inspection of such dwelling or dwelling unit.
